Somalia's Ministry of Energy and Water Resources has launched a significant tender for a large-scale hybrid solar and battery energy storage project in northeastern Somalia. The initiative, part of the Somali Electricity Sector Recovery Project, seeks to expand the nation's renewable energy.

The Ministry of Energy and Water Resources (MoEWR) of Somalia has issued a competitive tender for the provision of solar and storage technology at 46 different sites in the capital Mogadishu. The government department is seeking bids for the design, supply, installation, testing and commissioning.

This Horn of Africa nation is making serious moves in renewable energy. With blistering sunshine 300+ days a year, Somalia's betting big on solar-plus-storage projects to rebuild its power sector. And here's the kicker: the World Bank's pouring millions into making it happen [1] [3]. 2025's already.
